JOHN M'BRIDE TO COME

The Head of the Federation Will Speak Here

SOME TIME IN NOVEMBER

Trades Council Appointed a Committee to Arrange for the Meeting, and the Labor Leader Has Promised to Come—Clerks Endorsed in the Early Closing Movement.

The most important event in the life of union workmen next month, in fact the most important of the year, will be a meeting to be held in the opera house some time in November.

For some time some of the leading members of Trades council have been agitating the bringing here of prominent union speakers, and the plan took form at the meeting last evening John McBride, the man who was for years the leader of the miners in Ohio and at present is at the head of the Federation of Labor, is the first speaker on the list. He is now in the east, but has promised to come to Liverpool upon his return, which will in all probability be in November. He will appear at the Grand, and no admission will be charged. The committee have the making of all arrangements in their hands, and promise a profitable evening for all who attend. The council also endorsed the action of the clerks in their movement for early closing, thus setting aside the claim that the majority of people in the city were desirous of having the stores kept open at night. As this last objection to the plan is removed, the present arrangement will doubtless prove permanent.

WHEN TO HUNT.

What the Game Laws Have About Restrictions.

The game laws of the state allow the following open seasons for hunting, the word open meaning that game can be killed:

Quail, November 10 to December 15. Squirrel, July 1 to December 15. Woodcock, July 15 to November 1. Ruffed grouse or pheasants and prairie chickens, September 1 to December 15. Ducks, September 1 to April 10. Ducks shall not be hunted on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of any week between September 1 and April 10. Turkeys, October 1 to December 15. Sunday hunting prohibited at all times. Swans protected at all times. Disturbing pigeon roosts or discharging any fire arm at any wild pigeon within one-half mile of a wild pigeon roost, prohibited. Brook trout, salmon, landlocked salmon, or California salmon, March 16 to September 1. Netting, trapping, poisons, explosives, etc., prohibited.

A HAZING CASE

It is Causing Dissension at Westminster College.

Not long ago many students of Westminster college, at New Wilmington, Pa., began the practice of hazing on a large scale, and some new men were so badly shaken up that there was a general row. Someone complained to the authorities, and four students were arrested for being connected with the affair. Three were given a hearing and held for court, but John Hanley, a well known young man of East End, was allowed a further hearing. The many friends of Mr. Hanley in this city can not but believe him innocent, as the fact of another hearing being granted implies. A number of Liverpool boys are students at the college.

KEEP THEM HOME.

'Squire Morley Endorses a Curfew Law for Children.

'Squire Morley, who had abundant experience when he was mayor, endorses the suggestion of the News Review that council pass a curfew ordinance for the benefit of people who can not keep their children at home. He has been watching the success of laws for this purpose in other parts of the country, and thinks that they work well enough to warrant something of that sort being done here. Mr. Morley believes that some restraint should be placed upon the young girls who run the streets at night alone.

GONE GLIMMERING.

Counties Can No Longer Pay for Armories.

The supreme court has decided that the National Guard, being a state institution liable for service in all parts of the state, must look to the legislature for its funds, and counties can not build armories for companies of the guard. Following on that same line the counties have no right to pay rent for armories, and that brings the Liverpool organization into the fight. Whether the commissioners throughout the state will at once discontinue the payment of rent or wait until the legislature makes an appropriation remains to be seen. If this course is followed there will be no end of confusion.

GOT HIS GLASSES.

Probably the Last of the Mrs. White Incident.

Trustee Lloyd today received a letter from Mrs. Dorff, a sister of Mrs. White, who died suddenly at the Hotel Grand, which undoubtedly establishes the woman's identity. Her effects will be shipped at once to Mrs. Dorff, but no trace has yet been found of the trunk, the check for which the trustees now hold. The superintendent of the Geauga county infirmary lays claim to a pair of gold rimmed glasses found among the effects of the old lady on the ground that a pair answering that description disappeared from his room about the time she departed. He will get the glasses.

STILL IT GOES.

Lots of Money Went to Pittsburg This Morning.

The last exposition excursion to Pittsburg took place this morning, and two sections of the train were required to carry the great number of people who went from points down the valley. The first section was made up of 11 coaches, and 387 tickets were sold from this city. The exposition has drawn largely from the city this year, and the number of people who have gone will exceed 2,000, for the attendance has been large on days other than when there were excursions. A business man who says he is conservative, places the number at 3,000.

KILLED THE CAT.

But They Had a Lot of Fun With It Before It Expired.

A party of workmen were engaged in tearing down an old building in East End yesterday, and late in the afternoon found a polecat in the structure. The animal had its home there, and was comfortably settled when the workmen roused him from his quarters, put a rope about his neck and dragged the animal to the river. Then there was great fun for a time, but the poor animal almost wild with terror was eventually killed. The incident drew a crowd, and afforded them amusement, although it was repeatedly suggested the cat be shot.

AN INTELLIGENT DOG.

He Knows When the Fire Bell Sounds.

Howard L. Kerr owns an intelligent dog. He is of that mongrel breed which runs to yellow in color and worthlessness in character, but he knows a thing or two about fires. When an alarm sounds at city hall he becomes wildly excited, and if possible hastens after the first person he sees running. If in a room he jumps and barks until allowed to leave, when his first act is to trot off to the fire station as fast as it is possible for him to go. The dog has been watched closely, and for several months has known when the fire bell sounds.

LIVING IN TOWN.

Mrs. Dolby Was Driven Out By the Cold.

Mrs. Dolby, the poor woman who has been having such a hard path to travel, has taken up her abode temporarily with relatives in town, having been driven out of the miserable shanty over the river by the cold. Mrs. Dolby found that her babe, not yet a year old, could not endure the suffering, and was even then suffering from a cold that might end its life. The woman is looking for a house in which to live, and as soon as it is found will again begin the task of supporting her three children.

RODE TO BEAVER.

Two Ladies Made the Trip on Bicycles.

Doctor Hathway and Doctor Standard, of the West End, are among the most enthusiastic disciples of the bicycle in the city, and have been using their wheels to good advantage during the entire summer. Today they decided on a new departure, never having made a long trip, and started for Beaver in the hope that it could be made in safety. The plucky ladies will be the first of their sex, if they succeed, to make the journey on bicycles.

A Typesetting Race.

William H. Gilmore and Joseph Sheetz, two printers on the Wellsville Standard, will engage in a typesetting contest in that office on Saturday morning. A side bet of $4 goes to the winner. Gilmore has been working at the case for 45 years, and only a few weeks ago set more type in a given time than George Welsh, one of the crack compositors of the valley

WILL THE JUDGE QUIT?

Rumored There Will be no Vacancy in Common Pleas.

SOME POLITICIANS THINK SO

Now That the Southern Part of the County Has a Candidate the Belief Spreads That Judge Billingsley Will Quietly Retain His Seat.

"I have heard the statement made that Judge Billingsley may change his mind and not resign after all."

The words were uttered by a prominent politician who keeps constantly in touch with affairs in all parts of the county, and is in position to know what he is talking about. "While there may never have been any arrangement among the interested gentlemen in the northern part of the county, and they had not selected the candidate for appointment, it certainly looked like that to people outside of Lisbon and Salem. We thought down here that they wanted the place and were going to have it without asking any questions, but Liverpool is too big and too powerful to be pushed in the dark that way, and when the lawyers here brought out P. M. Smith it was evident there would be a difference of opinion. If those petitions they talk about are being as liberally signed as we hear and Judge Young, as he doubtless will, adheres to his statement in that interview, the appointment will come south, and in that event it is believed there will be no vacancy. Of course, what I am telling you is nothing more than talk among the politicians, but look out for fire when you see a column of smoke."

FOR REVENUE ONLY.

Why the Democratic Ring Is in Local Politics.

"The only injury that paper can do to me is to stop patronizing me," said George W. Meredith to the News Review this morning when asked why the local organ of Democracy was after him. "Weaver has been put on the legislative ticket in the hope that it will further Campbell's interests, without regard to the welfare of local Democracy and I don't know but what it was done without the consent of the committee. Jimmy is in this fight as he is in all others for revenue only, and the only reason why he refuses to print the county ticket is because they won't pay him for it. Such Democracy as that is not wanted in Liverpool or any other place," and Mr. Meredith smiled.

There is a little story that the erstwhile boss of the Democracy, because of his fight with Editor Potts and the row that has been kicked up here at home, would like to get into the Republican party, but his advances are met with disdain. Knowing that the Brice machine will likely die soon after election, and that all cake will then be dough, the boss is said to stand almost alone in his position.

CALLING THEM HOME.

Letters of Appeal Received in the City Today.

Letters signed by C. M. Anderson, chairman of the state Democratic committee, were received in Liverpool today. They are appeals for Populists to vote the Democratic ticket, based upon the belief that all who did so last year were Democrats who wanted to protest against the hard times. The writer wants an answer to his appeal, and promises that whatever may be done for the party will entitle the man who does it to the party's recognition and the thanks of the committee. However, he neglects to explain what the "recognition of the party" amounts to or what good it will do a Populist. Enclosed in the letter is a pamphlet setting forth the awful wickedness of Coxeyism.

MORE HARMONY.

Potts is Commended for His Stand in Politics.

A "Democrat" writing to the Lisbon Patriot from this city warmly commends Editor Potts for the course he has adopted in defying the Brice ring and refusing to wear the collar of the New Yorker. The local Democratic boss is styled ignorant and self-willed and Potts is advised to let him alone, and he will work his own political death. Thus is Democratic harmony shown in the county. The faithful few are getting farther apart every day, and the rank and file are at a loss to know which ring to follow.

CATS TO BURN.

Felines Instead of Human Beings at the Stake.

It is now related that the boys who wanted to make their wild west play realistic a few weeks ago by tying one of their number to a tree and surrounding him with combustibles, have changed their tactics, and are venting their wrath on cats. Almost all the felines in that neighborhood have disappeared, and the story is abroad that the first victim died by being roasted. Whether others have shared the same fate remains to be seen, but the propensities for cruelty developed by the boys prompts the belief that they have not been clothed in purple and fine linen and transported to a palatial abode for cats.

NO SPECIAL ELECTION.

The New Councilman Will Not Cost Much Money.

The election of a councilman in the Third ward to fill the unexpired term of Mr. George will take place when the state and county officers are chosen on Nov. 5. The statement is made by Mayor Gilbert as authority, and there is little room for belief that the arrangement will be changed. The saving is enough to warrant the delay, since it would be impossible for the new councilman to take a place in the council chamber if a special was called. Candidates are not facing ever each other in a wild race for the position.

SOON TO SETTLE.

The Sanitary Strike Is Nearing An End.

Word was sent out from Trenton yesterday that the strike of the sanitary potters was being satisfactorily adjusted, and it would not be long until all the men would again be at work. The news was received with glee in Wheeling, where they hope to reach a settlement this week or the first of next at the latest. The difference has existed for some time, but the men have only been out of work a few weeks. All the sanitary potters in the east joined the movement, but those west of the mountains were not a unit in demanding the concession.

SPOTTERS IN TOWN.

Believed the Street Railway Have Them Here.

It is rumored today that a number of spotters are in town, and are at work on the street railway. The story was extensively circulated this morning and last night, several people declaring they had seen the men on the cars. One of the strangers who is said to be a spotter is credited with riding half a dozen times over the line yesterday, and each trip was made on a different car. The motor-men can not imagine why the spotters are here, provided any of them are in town.

TORE HIS ANKLE.

A Foot Caught Between Two Logs Was Painfully Hurt.

Harry Davis, a man employed by C. E. Reagel to haul logs a short distance above East End, met with a painful accident that will prevent him doing work for some time. While at work he got his foot caught between two logs as they were being dragged along the ground by a heavy team, and before he could stop the horses the flesh had almost all been torn from top of his foot, making an awful wound and causing the victim excruciating pain.

INTEREST DEVELOPING.

Football Enthusiasts Think the Sport Will be Popular.

The football enthusiasts in town believe the sport has at last come to Liverpool to stay, and they are doing all they can to work up a feeling in favor of the game. Last evening one of the clubs practiced at West End park, and fully 100 people were present to see the fun. A game between the high school team and the boys who have played football before will be played on Monday, and as no admission will be charged a good crowd will see the sport.

COON CONTEST.

The Sport to End in an Oyster Supper.

Coon hunting has become so popular in the city that Will Davidson has organized a party to contest against another crowd under the guiding care of George Foster. Two nights next week will be devoted to the sport, each party being free to go where it will in search of game. After the hunt the spoils will be counted, and the side having the smaller number of coons will pay for a bountiful oyster supper, of which all will partake.

Died in Denver.

Word was received here today that Joseph Surles, who will be remembered by many people in the city as having been employed in the postoffice a number of years ago, was dead in Denver after a vain attempt to battle consumption. George Surles, now a resident of Beaver Falls, was the unfortunate man's father.

CONKLE WAS INDICTED

Officers Earle and Jennings Also In It.

MANY SALOON MEN CAUGHT

The Grand Jury Returned 133 True Bills, The Greatest Criminal Batch Ever Brought In This County—The New Jail Not Advocated As Usual.

Special to News Review.

LISBON, Oct. 17.—The grand jury completed its work, and made a return last night, having on its little list 133 criminal cases.

The most important indictment returned was that against J. S. Conkle, the Liverpool man who was sent here last week after a most sensational hearing before Mayor Gilbert. There are two bills against him, one of assault with intent to rape and the other of rape. He is now confined here in the county jail, having never taken advantage of the fact that he could have been released on a bond of $5,000.

Other important indictments returned were against members of the East Liverpool police force, Officer Earle being charged with breaking into a house in day time and committing violence. The case is the outgrowth of an attempt of the police to raid the saloon of Harry Hughes, who was suspected of selling liquor on Sunday. Officer Jennings is the other man, and his case comes from the arrest of Charles McGovern last week. As was published at that time, Jennings is charged with beating McGovern with his mace, the charge against him being assault and battery. The other indictments are as follows:

John McDonald and David James, unlawfully taking and using a house; Addison Buke, larceny. The jail report was much after the usual fashion although it is not recommended that a new one be built. Sheriff Lodge is commended for the splendid manner in which he conducts the institution, and it is suggested that the jail be connected with the sewer system of Lisbon.

The number of indictments for violating the liquor laws is 108, greater than ever before returned by a Columbiana grand jury. These are very well scattered through the county, it is said, but the big end of the list comes from the southern part with Liverpool far in the lead. As none of the accused are under arrest or have given bond for their appearance the names are carefully preserved, and no information is given out as to the personnel of the list.

LIVERPOOL CASES.

Local Plaintiffs Get What They Ask In Court.

Special to News Review. LISBON, Oct. 17.—In common pleas court today Joseph E. Bennett, of Liverpool, was granted a divorce from his wife, Tessica, and the custody of their two minor children. Unfaithfulness and adultery are the charges, Eli A. Schreckengosh being the man named.

Hon. David Boyce, who had a suit against Mt. Hope college, in which he asked $2,000, won out, and was given a judgment by default. An order calling for the sale of the ground on which the college buildings stand was issued.

The suit of the First National bank, of East Liverpool, against A. C. Bradshaw, was disposed of in short order, the bank being allowed a judgment of $803.01.

Clerk King announces today that the assignment for Oct. 21 has been postponed indefinitely, but an assignment of criminal cases will be made out for the week commencing Oct. 28. Court will be in session next week to arraign defendants, and dispose of formal matters. The change is made because of the great number of criminal cases on the docket.

SPORT IN PITTSBURG.

A Liverpool Boy Who Fell by the Wayside.

The Pittsburg papers report the following:

"Harry Watts, who came from East Liverpool yesterday, was arrested at Liberty and Wood streets at 2:30 a. m. He was intoxicated and refused to tell Officer McDonough anything about himself, and was locked up as a suspicious character. The prisoner said there was a charge against him for a misdemeanor and he had to answer next Wednesday. He is out on bail. He is stopping at a hotel, and as he was well dressed, and did not look like a suspicious person, the magistrate dismissed the case."

Will Move.

Mr. Eldner, of East End, will soon move to a farm in Stark county, where they will in future reside.

JOHN M'BRIDE TO COME

The Head of the Federation Will Speak Here

SOME TIME IN NOVEMBER

Trades Council Appointed a Committee to Arrange for the Meeting, and the Labor Leader Has Promised to Come—Clerks Endorsed in the Early Closing Movement.

The most important event in the life of union workmen next month, in fact the most important of the year, will be a meeting to be held in the opera house some time in November.

For some time some of the leading members of Trades council have been agitating the bringing here of prominent union speakers, and the plan took form at the meeting last evening. John McBride, the man who was for years the leader of the miners in Ohio and at present is at the head of the Federation of Labor, is the first speaker on the list. He is now in the east, but has promised to come to Liverpool upon his return, which will in all probability be in November. He will appear at the Grand, and no admission will be charged. The committee have the making of all arrangements in their hands, and promise a profitable evening for all who attend. The council also endorsed the action of the clerks in their movement for early closing, thus settling aside the claim that the majority of people in the city were desirous of having the stores kept open at night. As this last objection to the plan is removed, the present arrangement will doubtless prove permanent.

WHEN TO HUNT.

What the Game Laws Have About Restrictions.

The game laws of the state allow the following open seasons for hunting, the word open meaning that game can be killed:

Quail, November 10 to December 15. Squirrel, July 1 to December 15. Woodcock, July 15 to November 1. Ruffed grouse or pheasants and prairie chickens, September 1 to December 15. Ducks, September 1 to April 10. Ducks shall not be hunted on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of any week between September 1 and April 10. Turkeys, October 1 to December 15. Sunday hunting prohibited at all times. Swans protected at all times. Disturbing pigeon roosts or discharging any fire arm at any wild pigeon within one-half mile of a wild pigeon roost, prohibited. Brook trout, salmon, landlocked salmon, or California salmon, March 16 to September 1. Netting, trapping, poisons, explosives, etc., prohibited.

Not long ago many students of Westminster college, at New Wilmington, Pa., began the practice of hazing on a large scale, and some new men were so badly shaken up that there was a general row. KEEP THEM HOME.

Squire Morley Endorses a Curfew Law for Children.

Squire Morley, who had abundant experience when he was mayor, endorses the suggestion of the News Review that council pass a curfew ordinance for the benefit of people who can not keep their children at home. He has been watching the success of laws for this purpose in other parts of the country, and thinks that they work well enough to warrant something of that sort being done here. Mr. Morley believes that some restraint should be placed upon the young girls who run the streets at night alone.

GONE GLIMMERING.

Counties Can No Longer Pay For Armories.

The supreme court has decided that the National Guard, being a state institution liable for service in all parts of the state, must look to the legislature for its funds, and counties can not build armories for companies of the guard. Following on that same line the counties have no right to pay rent for armories, and that brings the Liverpool organization into the fight. Whether the commissioners throughout the state will at once discontinue the payment of rent or wait until the legislature makes an appropriation remains to be seen. If this course is followed there will be no end of confusion.

GOT HIS GLASSES.

Probably the Last of the Mrs. White Incident.

Trustee Lloyd today received a letter from Mrs. Dorff, a sister of Mrs. White, who died suddenly at the Hotel Grand, which undoubtedly establishes the woman's identity. Her effects will be shipped at once to Mrs. Dorff, but no trace has yet been found of the trunk, the check for which the trustees now hold. The superintendent of the Geauga county infirmary lays claim to a pair of gold rimmed glasses found among the effects of the old lady on the ground that a pair answering that description disappeared from his room about the time she departed. He will get the glasses.

WILL THE JUDGE QUIT?

Rumored There Will be no Vacancy in Common Pleas.

SOME POLITICIANS THINK SO

Now That the Southern Part of the County Has a Candidate the Belief Spreads That Judge Billingsley Will Quietly Retain His Seat.

"I have heard the statement made that Judge Billingsley may change his mind and not resign after all."

The words were uttered by a prominent politician who keeps constantly in touch with affairs in all parts of the county, and is in position to know what he is talking about. "While there may never have been any arrangement among the interested gentlemen in the northern part of the county, and they had not selected the candidate for appointment, it certainly looked like that to people outside of Lisbon and Salem. We thought down here that they wanted the place and were going to have it without asking any questions, but Liverpool is too big and too powerful to be pushed in the dark that way, and when the lawyers here brought out P. M. Smith it was evident there would be a difference of opinion. If those petitions they talk about are being as liberally signed as we hear and Judge Young, as he doubtless will, adheres to his statement in that interview, the appointment will come south, and in that event it is believed there will be no vacancy. Of course, what I am telling you is nothing more than talk among the politicians, but look out for fire when you see a column of smoke."

FOR REVENUE ONLY.

Why the Democratic Ring Is In Local Politics.

"The only injury that paper can do to me is to stop patronizing me," said George W. Meredith to the News Review this morning when asked why the local organ of Democracy was after him. "Weaver has been put on the legislative ticket in the hope that it will further Campbell's interests, without regard to the welfare of local Democracy and I don't know but what it was done without the consent of the committee. Jimmy is in this fight as he is in all others for revenue only, and the only reason why he refuses to print the county ticket is because they won't pay him for it. Such Democracy as that is not wanted in Liverpool or any other place," and Mr. Meredith smiled.

There is a little story that the erstwhile boss of the Democracy, because of his fight with Editor Potts and the row that has been kicked up here at home, would like to get into the Republican party, but his advances are met with disdain. Knowing that the Brice machine will likely die soon after election, and that all cake will then be dough, the boss is said to stand almost alone in his position.

CALLING THEM HOME.

Letters of Appeal Received in the City Today.

Letters signed by C. M. Anderson, chairman of the state Democratic committee, were received in Liverpool today. They are appeals for Populists to vote the Democratic ticket, based upon the belief that all who did so last year were Democrats who wanted to protest against the hard times. The writer wants an answer to his appeal, and promises that whatever may be done for the party will entitle the man who does it to the party's recognition and the thanks of the committee. However, he neglects to explain what the "recognition of the party" amounts to or what good it will do a Populist. Enclosed in the letter is a pamphlet setting forth the awful wickedness of Coxeyism.

MORE HARMONY.

Potts is Commended for His Stand in Politics.

A "Democrat" writing to the Lisbon Patriot from this city warmly commends Editor Potts for the course he has adopted in defying the Brice ring and refusing to wear the collar of the New Yorker. The local Democratic boss is styled ignorant and self-willed and Potts is advised to let him alone, and he will work his own political death. Thus is Democratic harmony shown in the county. The faithful few are getting farther apart every day, and the rank and file are at a loss to know which ring to follow.

CATS TO BURN.

Felines Instead of Human Beings at the Stake.

It is now related that the boys who wanted to make their wild west play realistic a few weeks ago by tying one of their number to a tree and surrounding him with combustibles, have changed their tactics, and are venting their wrath on cats. Almost all the felines in that neighborhood have disappeared, and the story is abroad that the first victim died by being roasted. Whether others have shared the same fate remains to be seen, but the propensities for cruelty developed by the boys prompts the belief that they have not been clothed in purple and fine linen and transported to a palatial abode for cats.

NO SPECIAL ELECTION.

The New Councilman Will Not Cost Much Money.

The election of a councilman in the Third ward to fill the unexpired term of Mr. George will take place when the state and county officers are chosen on Nov. 5. The statement is made by Mayor Gilbert as authority, and there is little room for belief that the arrangement will be changed. The saving is enough to warrant the delay, since it would be impossible for the new councilman to take a place in the council chamber if a special was called. Candidates are not falling over each other in a wild race for the position.

SOON TO SETTLE.

The Sanitary Strike Is Nearing An End.

Word was sent out from Trenton yesterday that the strike of the sanitary potters was being satisfactorily adjusted, and it would not be long until all the men would again be at work. The news was received with glee in Wheeling, where they hope to reach a settlement this week or the first of next at the latest. The difference has existed for some time, but the men have only been out of work a few weeks. All the sanitary potters in the east joined the movement, but those west of the mountains were not a unit in demanding the concession.

SPOTTERS IN TOWN.

Believed the Street Railway Have Them Here.

It is rumored today that a number of spotters are in town, and are at work on the street railway. The story was extensively circulated this morning and last night, several people declaring they had seen the men on the cars. One of the strangers who is said to be a spotter is credited with riding half a dozen times over the line yesterday, and each trip was made on a different car. The motor-men can not imagine why the spotters are here, provided any of them are in town.

TORE HIS ANKLE.

A Foot Caught Between Two Logs Was Painfully Hurt.

Harry Davis, a man employed by C. E. Reagel to haul logs a short distance above East End, met with a painful accident that will prevent him doing work for some time. While at work he got his foot caught between two logs as they were being dragged along the ground by a heavy team, and before he could stop the horses the flesh had almost all been torn from top of his foot, making an awful wound and causing the victim excruciating pain.

INTEREST DEVELOPING.

Football Enthusiasts Think the Sport Will be Popular.

The football enthusiasts in town believe the sport has at last come to Liverpool to stay, and they are doing all they can to work up a feeling in favor of the game. Last evening one of the clubs practiced at West End park, and fully 100 people were present to see the fun. A game between the high school team and the boys who have played foot ball before will be played on Monday, and as no admission will be charged a good crowd will see the sport.

COON CONTEST.

The Sport to End in an Oyster Supper.

Coon hunting has become so popular in the city that Will Davidson has organized a party to contest against another crowd under the guiding care of George Foster. Two nights next week will be devoted to the sport, each party being free to go where it will in search of game. After the hunt the spoils will be counted, and the side having the smaller number of coons will pay for a bountiful oyster supper, of which all will partake.

Died in Denver.

Word was received here today that Joseph Surles, who will be remembered by many people in the city as having been employed in the postoffice a number of years ago, was dead in Denver after a vain attempt to battle consumption. George Surles, now a resident of Beaver Falls, was the unfortunate man's father.

CONKLE WAS INDICTED

Officers Earle and Jennings Also In It.

MANY SALOON MEN CAUGHT

The Grand Jury Returned 133 True Bills, The Greatest Criminal Batch Ever Brought In This County—The New Jail Not Advocated As Usual.

Special to News Review. LISBON, Oct. 17.—The grand jury completed its work, and made a return last night, having on its little list 133 criminal cases.

The most important indictment returned was that against J. S. Conkle, the Liverpool man who was sent here last week after a most sensational hearing before Mayor Gilbert. There are two bills against him, one of assault with intent to rape and the other of rape. He is now confined here in the county jail, having never taken advantage of the fact that he could have been released on a bond of $5,000.

Other important indictments returned were against members of the East Liverpool police force, Officer Earle being charged with breaking into a house in day time and committing violence. The case is the outgrowth of an attempt of the police to raid the saloon of Harry Hughes, who was suspected of selling liquor on Sunday. Officer Jennings is the other man, and his case comes from the arrest of Charles McGovern last week. As was published at that time, Jennings is charged with beating McGovern with his mace, the charge against him being assault and battery. The other indictments are as follows:

John McDonald and David James, unlawfully taking and using a house; Addison Buke, larceny. The jail report was much after the usual fashion although it is not recommended that a new one be built. Sheriff Lodge is commended for the splendid manner in which he conducts the institution, and it is suggested that the jail be connected with the sewer system of Lisbon.

The number of indictments for violating the liquor laws is 108, greater than ever before returned by a Columbiana grand jury. These are very well scattered through the county, it is said, but the big end of the list comes from the southern part with Liverpool far in the lead. As none of the accused are under arrest or have given bond for their appearance the names are carefully preserved, and no information is given out as to the personnel of the list.

LIVERPOOL CASES.

Local Plaintiffs Get What They Ask In Court.

Special to News Review.

LISBON, Oct. 17.—In common pleas court today Joseph E. Bennett, of Liverpool, was granted a divorce from his wife, Tessica, and the custody of their two minor children. Unfaithfulness and adultery are the charges, Eli A. Schreckengost being the man named.

Hon. David Boyce, who had a suit against Mt. Hope college, in which he asked $2,000, won out, and was given a judgment by default. An order calling for the sale of the ground on which the college buildings stand was issued.

The suit of the First National bank, of East Liverpool, against A. C. Bradshaw, was disposed of in short order, the bank being allowed a judgment of $803.01.

Clerk King announces today that the assignment for Oct. 21 has been postponed indefinitely, but an assignment of criminal cases will be made out for the week commencing Oct. 28. Court will be in session next week to arraign defendants, and dispose of formal matters. The change is made because of the great number of criminal cases on the docket.

SPORT IN PITTSBURG.

A Liverpool Boy Who Fell by the Wayside.

The Pittsburg papers report the following:

"Harry Watts, who came from East Liverpool yesterday, was arrested at Liberty and Wood streets at 2:30 a. m. He was intoxicated and refused to tell Officer McDonough anything about himself, and was locked up as a suspicious character. The prisoner said there was a charge against him for a misdemeanor and he had to answer next Wednesday. He is out on bail. He is stopping at a hotel, and as he was well dressed, and did not look like a suspicious person, the magistrate dismissed the case."

Will Move.

Mr. Eidner, of East End, will soon move to a farm in Stark county, where they will in future reside.

COLONEL BRICE pulls the purse string and Candidate Campbell does the rest.

To elect Campbell and a Democratic legislature this year would be to heap disgrace and dishonor upon the people of Ohio.

THOUSANDS of enthusiastic Republicans loudly applaud the efforts of Mr. Campbell to show that he, and he alone, is the issue of the campaign—
his scheme showing plainly that he is under orders.

The clean, honest campaign being conducted by Governor McKinley, General Bushnell and Mr. Foraker stands out in bold relief against the bullying tactics of Boss Brice and his man Campbell.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND and his Democratic friends in Washington will smile when they hear from Ohio next November, since they have not forgotten the part Brice took in revising the Wilson bill.

THE Democrats who vote for Campbell will be supporting Brice for the senate. The New Yorker, who has no use for Ohio people except when he is after an honor, is managing and bossing the Democratic end of this campaign as well as paying for it.

MORE TARIFF.

"I have no hesitation in saying,"
said Senator Sherman the other day to the Washington Post, "that tariff legislation will be one of the first things gone about at the incoming congress. It is absolutely imperative we must have more money. And that means a revision of tariff and revenue laws as they now exist. The present laws do not produce enough money, and the question of raising more is not one of politics but of pressing need. No, I could not indicate in what direction tariff legislation might be looked for. These revenue measures, whatever they are, must originate in the house, and it would be very difficult, impossible, in fact, for a member of the senate to foretell their tenor."

That is what Liverpool needs. If there is to be any tariff changes it remains for the potters to demand a restitution of the duty taken from them,
or at least that the promise of Senator Smith be carried out. The potting industry has been shamefully abused
by the Democrats, and the first duty of congress should be reparation.
Thousands of dollars have already been lost to Liverpool and thousands more will go to follow the first if some move is not made looking to a restoration of a living tariff.

AUTHORITIES DIFFER.

Arkansas Law as to Prizefight-ing Not Very Clear.

A MILITARY OFFICIAL'S POSITION.

Attorney General Kinsworthy's Views
May Not Harmonize With the Governor's—Don't Propose to Have Any Tricks Played Upon Them.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 17.—Attorney General Kinsworthy's opinion on the legality of the course adopted by Governor Clarke in connection with the prizefight question will probably not be known, unless the governor calls upon him for a written opinion in the regular way. He has bluntly declined to answer any questions on the subject, and refuses to give an opinion either to any private citizen or to the press.

Mr. Kinsworthy said that he had received upwards of 1,000 letters from various parts of the state from citizens seeking his opinion on various subjects and that he had ignored them all. He believed, he said, that the governor had ample authority, under the law, to stop the fight, but should he venture an opinion in the press, said he, in less than 24 hours half the lawyers in the state would jump up with adverse criticisms, and he did not care to enter into any controversy.

When questioned closely Attorney General Kinsworthy admitted that the governor is basing his course of action on the law of 1838. He further admitted that the law was silent on the subject of prizefights, but maintained that, as applicable to riots and unlawful assemblies, it gave the governor ample authority to not only stop but prevent the fight from ever beginning.

"Were I to submit to an interview," he said, "I might say something that would not agree with Governor Clarke's view of the matter. Lawyers would come in here and jump on me, and I am not going to take any chances on that." It is said here on good authority that Attorney General Kins-worthy has been advised by friends to say nothing until called upon for an opinion.

Colonel Hollenbeck, commanding the First regiment, Arkansas guards, issued orders last night to every company in his regiment to hold themselves in readiness, subject to a call to Hot Springs. In an interview this afternoon Colonel Hollenbeck said:

"There is no secret about the matter.
Orders have been sent to every company of white militia in the state, notifying them to be in readiness to move to Hot Springs on short notice. If the prizefight is not called off at once a definite time for moving the militia to Hot Springs will be decided upon, and that time will be soon, as we do not propose to have any trick played upon us."

"If the militia goes to Hot Springs the expenses will be paid. I cannot say who will be responsible, but I will have the governor to show me on this point. If the militia goes, the fight continue their determination to have the affair come off the militia will be called out and stop the fight."

"Whether the governor is right or wrong, if he sends the militia to Hot Springs the fight will be stopped. I cannot take any cognizance in the premises, in deciding whether he is right or wrong. Just how the governor proposes to pay the expenses of the militia in the event they are called out to Hot Springs is not known. If Garland county calls for the militia of course that county will be held responsible financially. If the governor calls out the soldiers on his own hook it is not known who will pay the militia's expenses, as the state has no money appropriated for this."

Speaking of this matter Judge Morris H. Cohen, one of the most prominent members of the Little Rock bar, said:
"The general impression among the bar, as I have always understood it, is that the governor is only authorized to call out the militia to suppress a misdemeanor or other riotous proceedings
when called upon by the local authorities of the community in which such disturbances occur. Regular and proper administration of government contemplates that the county administrators shall be invested with the care of county affairs, including the preservation of peace and order, and that this shall not be interfered with by any outside power unless called upon by the county authorities."

SANTA FE, N. M., Oct. 17.—Governor
Thornton, when approached by emissaries of the Florida Athletic club, declared that under no circumstances would he permit a prize fight to be staged in this territory. He declared that he had confidence in every sheriff in New Mexico doing his full duty in the premises, but if need be, he would call on the national government to aid him in suppressing anything of this sort.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Oct. 17.—Whether the meeting of James J. Corbett and Robert Fitzsimmons shall occur at Hot Springs Oct. 31 is not decided, but from all indications the chances are now exceedingly favorable. Governor Clarke arrived from Little Rock and met the local committee, together with the Garland county officers, in private conference, to which not a newspaper man was admitted.

Members of the conference, when buttonholed, said that it had been agreed in the meeting that nothing that occurred there was to be made public. From the best information that could be wormed out of the reluctant conferees it is understood that the matter is to be left by the governor in the hands of the local authorities, in whom he has confidence to properly interpret the law and carry it out.

Blind For Over Two Hours.

LANCASTER, Ky., Oct. 17.—Cash Pumphrey came near losing his eyesight
He purchased some soap from a peddler containing strong acid. In washing he got some soap in his eyes and was nearly blinded. He could not see for two hours or more.

Six Hundred Reported Killed.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 17.—An explosion has occurred on a steamship at Kung-Pai, near Kinchow. The steamship was loaded with troops, and it is reported that 600 of them were killed.

GENERAL HOW TESTIFIES.

He Identifies Telegrams That Passed Between Him and Sheriff Cook

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 17.—When the Cott trial was resumed Adjutant General Howe was the first witness called to the stand. His testimony consisted in identifying the telegrams that passed between Sheriff Cook and himself preceding and during the riot.

Sheriff Cook was then placed on the stand and subjected to a rigid cross-examination. No material facts were brought out in the cross-examination further than had been testified to in the direct examination. Once or twice Sheriff Cook was a little confused as to the time of certain occurrences, but always corrected himself. His cross-examination was not finished.

Thinks the City Outreached Itself.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 17.—Speaking of the move on the part of the city government in taking possession of the lake front, President Caldwell of the Lake Shore railroad said that no definite action had been decided upon regarding the matter by his company. "The city made a bold stroke," he said, "but when we get through with our side of the story Mayor McKisson and his officials may be sorry that they spoke.
The land belongs to the Lake Shore,
and the city has far outreached itself
by confiscating the property without making overtures of remuneration."

Found a Prehistoric Cemetery.

MILFORD, O., Oct. 17.—Upon Upper Stone Lick creek, near here, M. C.
Cowan, a surveyor, while engaged in laying off farm property, found a prehistoric cemetery of great extent, covering many acres and containing thousands of graves. The curator of the state museum opened some of them
and found pipes, cipher ordinates, beads, pearls, spearheads and other trinkets. Men are now digging, and relics are being uncovered hourly.

Affirmed the Judgement.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 17.—The supreme court has affirmed the judgment of the Hamilton county circuit court in the case of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railway company vs. Charles W. Mackefresh, administrator. A son of this administrator, aged 12 years,
was struck by a train at Winton place and killed. The company was sued for $10,000 damages and a verdict secured for $2,500. This is now made absolute.

Steeple-Climber Ward Recovering.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 17.—Clarence E.
Ward, the steeple-climber who was recently precipitated a distance of 90 feet
while repairing a smokestack at St.
Elizabeth's hospital, has sufficiently recovered to enable him to leave the hospital. His arm was saved and he will probably be enabled in time to resume his vocation.

Miners Decide Not to Strike.

POMEROY, O., Oct. 17.—The miners of Pomeroy Bend have met here to consider the question of striking for an advance of one-fourth cent per bushel. It was decided to continue mining at the old price—13 cents—until the river rises. The miners are disorganized. A 2-cent rate is paid on the West Virginia side of the river.

Arrested For Selling Impure Foods.

HAMILTON, Oct. 17.—Assistant Food and Dairy Commissioner E. G. Luebing of Cincinnati came to this city and served out warrants for the arrest of Paul N. Chols, J. Scholk, William Crull and Andrew Schul for selling milk below the standard, and against Philip Cramer for selling adulterated mustard.

SMALL OHIO HAPPENINGS.

The Fisher Clothing company at Wapakoneta was robbed of $3,000 worth of goods.

A Mansfield jury found John J. Bertram guilty of the murder of a fellow tramp in a boxcar.

A northbound Cleveland and Pittsburg passenger train killed Frank Sabin of Atwater at Ravenna.

Cornelius Vanderwild, an oil operator of Gibsonburg, died in Toledo, after a sneeze. The coroner will investigate.

H. H. Mechin, of the Winchester Milling company, was thrown from his bicycle and had his collar bone broken.

At Foraker, George Kelly attempted suicide by firing two bullets into his head.
He was tired of life, and will probably die.

The 3-year-old son of David Powell, living near as Burdett, was run over by a wagon heavily loaded with stone, and killed.

At the Ohio Wesleyan university the ground was broken for the new Slocum library. Dr. Slocum, of Defiance, the donor of $50,000, was present and oversaw the work.

At Omega, Pike county, two colored men, father and son, both named Sam
Johnson, quarreled over a white woman named Nancy Burns. The father beat his son's brains out with a bed slat.

A jury was secured at London in the trial of Albert Brant, charged with the murder of A. D. Stone at Lilly Chapel on Nov. 8, 1894. The trial will probably consume the greater part of the week.

E. G. Townsend of Athens, department commander of the Ohio G. A. R., is relating a petition for signatures asking the pardon of W. J. Elliott, on the ground of illness. Almost 4,000 names have been secured.

The safe in Kit & Bowers's genera store, at Blakeslee, was blown open a u-burglar, Frank Fisher, had his shoulder crushed and his head severely cut by the flying fragments. Only $2.50 was secured by the robbers.

Seventy-six children—36 girls and 40
boys—were confirmed at the Catholic church in London by Bishop Matz of Denver, Colo. A large number of priests from other cities were present, and assisted in the ceremonies.

Robert L. Andrew, ex-county treasurer, filed suit at Akron for divorce from his wife. He charges neglect of duty. Mrs.
Andrew was Emma Woods, daughter of one of the city's wealthiest bankers. They were married in 1881.

Putnam county reported to the adjutant general the number of soldiers living in her boundaries, which is 742. Mr. C.
H. Shaffer, of the adjutant general's office, in comparing the reports of the G.
A. R. as to the number of old soldiers living in the different counties, with the official reports now coming in, finds that the G. A. R. reports do not include more than half of the old soldiers.

How Boy Criminals Are Punished by Thrashing In England.

Boys who are found guilty of minor offenses in England are sentenced by the judges to a sound thrashing at the hands of the policeman. Here is a description of it taken from an English paper:

The birch is a very different instrument of torture from the cat. The former is made up of a number of long birch twigs, while the latter is really a whip with nine knotted small cord lashes. When the cat is administered, the prison doctor must be present, but when the birch is put on it is only necessary for the inspector or superintendent of police to witness it, although the parents or near relatives of a boy sentenced to be flogged may be present at the castigation. When a dose of the cat is dealt out, none but those connected with the prison are allowed to be there.

Like the cat the birch may be made a very severe punishment or a comparatively trivial affair, not merely according to the number of strokes, but from the instructions given the constable who is told off to do the flogging. I have seen a boy after six strokes resemble nothing so much as a piece of raw beef and bleeding fearfully, while I have also seen a boy after six strokes merely a trifle red.

Some policemen dread the duty of flogging, and after the first two strokes get a sharp order to "hit the boy and not play with him." Other constables delight in the work and boast of their ability to draw blood at the first stroke.

Various modes of administering the punishment obtain in different parts of the country. In some places boys are placed face downward on a form. One constable holds his arms and head firmly, while another does him the same service with his legs, and the third administers the punishment.

In other prisons the culprit is placed on a constable's back, and as he sits there with his arms around the officer's neck, awaiting "the event," his attitude strikes a spectator more as one of affection than discomfort. Another way is to compel a boy to lean over a chair as if he were praying, then run a strap right around his legs and the legs of the chair,
a constable holding his head and arms
from the other side.—Brooklyn Eagle.

COLONEL BRICE pulls the purse string and Candidate Campbell does the rest.

To elect Campbell and a Democratic legislature this year would be to heap disgrace and dishonor upon the people of Ohio.

THOUSANDS of enthusiastic Republicans loudly applaud the efforts of Mr. Campbell to show that he, and he alone, is the issue of the campaign—his scheme showing plainly that he is under orders.

The clean, honest campaign being conducted by Governor McKinley, General Bushnell and Mr. Foraker stands out in bold relief against the bullying tactics of Boss Brice and his man Campbell.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND and his Democratic friends in Washington will smile when they hear from Ohio next November, since they have not forgotten the part Brice took in revising the Wilson bill.

THE Democrats who vote for Campbell will be supporting Brice for the senate. The New Yorker, who has no use for Ohio people except when he is after an honor, is managing and bossing the Democratic end of this campaign as well as paying for it.

MORE TARIFF.

"I have no hesitation in saying," said Senator Sherman the other day to the Washington Post, "that tariff legislation will be one of the first things gone about at the incoming congress. It is absolutely imperative we must have more money. And that means a revision of tariff and revenue laws as they now exist. The present laws do not produce enough money, and the question of raising more is not one of politics but of pressing need. No, I could not indicate in what direction tariff legislation might be looked for. These revenue measures, whatever they are, must originate in the house, and it would be very difficult, impossible, in fact, for a member of the senate to foretell their tenor."

That is what Liverpool needs. If there is to be any tariff changes it remains for the potters to demand a restoration of the duty taken from them, or at least that the promise of Senator Smith be carried out. The pottery industry has been shamefully abused by the Democrats, and the first duty of congress should be reparation. Thousands of dollars have already been lost to Liverpool and thousands more will go to follow the first if some move is not made looking to a restoration of a living tariff.

AUTHORITIES DIFFER.

Arkansas Law as to Prizefighting Not Very Clear.

A MILITARY OFFICIAL'S POSITION.

Attorney General Kinsworthy's Views May Not Harmonize With the Governor's—Don't Propose to Have Any Tricks Played Upon Them.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 17.—Attorney General Kinsworthy's opinion on the legality of the course adopted by Governor Clarke in connection with the prizefight question will probably not be known, unless the governor calls upon him for a written opinion in the regular way. He has bluntly declined to answer any questions on the subject, and refuses to give an opinion either to any private citizen or to the press.

Mr. Kinsworthy said that he had received upwards of 1,000 letters from various parts of the state from citizens seeking his opinion on various subjects and that he had ignored them all. He believed, he said, that the governor had ample authority, under the law, to stop the fight, but should he venture an opinion in the press, said he, in less than 24 hours half the lawyers in the state would jump up with adverse criticisms, and he did not care to enter into any controversy.

When questioned closely Attorney General Kinsworthy admitted that the governor is basing his course of action on the law of 1838. He further admitted that the law was silent on the subject of prizefights, but maintained that, as applicable to riots and unlawful assemblages, it gave the governor ample authority to not only stop but prevent the fight from ever beginning.

"Were I to submit to an interview," he said, "I might say something that would not agree with Governor Clarke's view of the matter. Lawyers would come in here and jump on me, and I am not going to take any chances on that." It is said here on good authority that Attorney General Kinsworthy has been advised by friends to say nothing until called upon for an opinion.

Colonel Hollenberg, commanding the First regiment, Arkansas guards, issued orders last night to every company in his regiment to hold themselves in readiness, subject to a call to Hot Springs. In an interview this afternoon Colonel Hollenberg said:

"There is no secret about the matter. Orders have been sent to every company of white militia in the state, notifying them to be in readiness to move to Hot Springs on short notice. If the prizefight is not called off at once a definite time for moving the militia to Hot Springs will be decided upon, and that time will be soon, as we do not propose to have any trick played upon us."

"If the militia goes to Hot Springs the expenses will be paid. I cannot say who will be responsible, but I will have the governor to show me on this point. If the managers of the fight continue their determination to have the affair come off the militia will be called out and stop the fight."

"Whether the governor is right or wrong, if he sends the militia to Hot Springs the fight will be stopped. I cannot take any cognizance in the premises, in deciding whether he is right or wrong. Just how the governor proposes to pay the expenses of the militia in the event they are called out to Hot Springs is not known. If Garland county calls for the militia of course that county will be held responsible financially. If the governor calls out the soldiers on his own hook it is not known who will pay the militia's expenses, as the state has no money appropriated for this."

Speaking of this matter Judge Morris H. Cohen, one of the most prominent members of the Little Rock bar, said: "The general impression among the bar, as I have always understood it, is that the governor is only authorized to call out the militia to suppress a misdemeanor or other riotous proceedings when called upon by the local authorities of the community in which such disturbances occur. Regular and proper administration of government contemplates that the county administrators shall be invested with the care of county affairs, including the preservation of peace and order, and that this shall not be interfered with by any outside power unless called upon by the county authorities."

SANTA FE, N. M., Oct. 17.—Governor Thornton, when approached by emissaries of the Florida Athletic club, declared that under no circumstances would he permit Corbett and Fitzsimmons to fight in this territory. He added that he had confidence in every sheriff in New Mexico doing his full duty in the premises, but if need be, he would call on the national government to aid him in suppressing anything of this sort.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Oct. 17.—Whether the meeting of James J. Corbett and Robert Fitzsimmons shall occur at Hot Springs Oct. 31 is not decided, but from all indications the chances are now exceedingly favorable. Governor Clarke arrived from Little Rock and met the local committee, together with the Garland county officers, in private conference, to which not a newspaper man was admitted.

Members of the conference, when buttonholed, said that it had been agreed in the meeting that nothing that occurred there was to be made public. From the best information that could be wormed out of the reluctant conferees it is understood that the matter is to be left by the governor in the hands of the local authorities, in whom he has confidence to properly interpret the law and carry it out.

Blind For Over Two Hours.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 17.—An explosion has occurred on a steamship at Kung-Pai, near Kinchow. The steamship was loaded with troops, and it is reported that 600 of them were killed.

GENERAL HOW TESTIFIES.

He Identifies Telegrams That Passed Between Him and Sheriff Cook.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 17.—When the Coit trial was resumed, Adjutant General Howe was the first witness called to the stand. His testimony consisted in identifying the telegrams that passed between Sheriff Cook and himself preceding and during the riot.

Sheriff Cook was then placed on the stand and subjected to a rigid cross-examination. No material facts were brought out in the cross-examination further than had been testified to in the direct examination. Once or twice Sheriff Cook was a little confused as to the time of certain occurrences, but always corrected himself. His cross-examination was not finished.

Thinks the City Outraged Itself.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 17.—Speaking of the move on the part of the city government in taking possession of the lake front, President Caldwell of the Lake Shore railroad said that no definite action had been decided upon regarding the matter by his company. "The city made a bold stroke," he said, "but when we get through with our side of the story Mayor McKisson and his officials may be sorry that they spoke. The land belongs to the Lake Shore, and the city has far outreached itself by confiscating the property without making overtures of remuneration."

Found a Prehistoric Cemetery.

MILFORD, O., Oct. 17.—Upon Upper Stone Lick creek, near here, M. C. Cowen, a surveyor, while engaged in laying off farm property, found a prehistoric cemetery of great extent, covering many acres and containing thousands of graves. The curator of the state museum opened some of them and found pipes, cipher ornaments, beads, pendants, spearheads and other trinkets. Men are now digging, and relics are being uncovered hourly.

Affirmed the Judgement.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 17.—The supreme court has affirmed the judgment of the Hamilton county circuit court in the case of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railway company vs. Charles W. Mackelfresh, administrator. A son of this administrator, aged 13 years, was struck by a train at Winton place and killed. The company was assessed for $10,000 damages and a verdict secured for $2,500. This is now made absolute.

Steeple-Climber Ward Recovering.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 17.—Clarence E. Ward, the steeple-climber who was recently precipitated a distance of 90 feet while repairing a smokestack at St. Elizabeth's hospital, has sufficiently recovered to enable him to leave the hospital. His arm was saved and he will probably be enabled in time to resume his vocation.

Miners Decide Not to Strike.

POMEROY, O., Oct. 17.—The miners of Pomeroiy Bend have met here to consider the question of striking for an advance of one-fourth cent per bushel. It was decided to continue mining at the old price—13 cents—until the river rises. The miners are disorganized. A 2-cent rate is paid on the West Virginia side of the river.

Arrested For Selling Impure Foods.

HAMILTON, Oct. 17.—Assistant Food and Dairy Commissioner E. G. Luebbling of Cincinnati came to this city and swore out warrants for the arrest of Paul N. Chols, J. Scholk, William Crull and Andrew Schul for selling milk below the standard, and against Philip Cramer for selling adulterated mustard.

SMALL OHIO HAPPENINGS.

The Fisher Clothing company at Wapakoneta was robbed of $3,000 worth of goods.

A Mansfield jury found John J. Bertram guilty of the murder of a fellow tramp in a boxcar.

A northbound Cleveland and Pittsburgh passenger train killed Frank Sabin of Atwater at Ravenna.

Cornelius Vanderveld, an oil operator of Gibsonburg, died in Toledo, after a spree. The coroner will investigate.

H. H. Mechlin of the Winchester Milling company, was thrown from his bicycle and had his collar bone broken.

At Foraker, George Kelly attempted suicide by firing two bullets into his head. He was tired of life, and will probably die.

The 3-year-old son of David Powell, living south of Bucyrus, was run over by a wagon heavily loaded with stone, and killed.

At the Ohio Wesleyan university the ground was broken for the new Slocum library. Dr. Slocum, of Defiance, the donor of $50,000, was present and oversaw the work.

At Omega, Pike county, two colored men, father and son, both named Sam Johnson, quarreled over a white woman named Nancy Burns. The father beat his son's brains out with a bed slat.

A jury was secured at London in the trial of Albert Bradford, charged with the murder of A. B. Stone at Lilly Chapel on Nov. 8, 1894. The trial will probably consume the greater part of the week.

E. G. Townsend of Athens, department commander of the Ohio G. A. R., is conducting a petition for signatures asking the pardon of W. J. Elliott, on the ground of illness. Almost 4,000 names have been secured.

The safe in Kit & Bowersox's general store, at Blakeslee, was blown open by a burglar. Frank Fisher, haw's shoe-maker, crushed and his head severely cut by the flying fragments. Only $2.50 was secured by the robbers.

Seventy-six children—36 girls and 40 boys—were confirmed at the Catholic church in London by Bishop Metz of Denver, Colo. A large number of priests from other cities were present, and assisted in the ceremonies.

Robert L. Andrew, ex-county treasurer, filed suit at Akron for divorce from his wife. He charges neglect of duty. Mrs. Edwards was Emma Woods, daughter of one of the city's wealthiest bankers. They were married in 1881.

Putnam county reported to the adjutant general the number of soldiers living in her boundaries, which is 742. Mr. C. H. Shaffer, of the adjutant general's office, in comparing the reports of the G. A. R. as to the number of old soldiers living in the different counties, with the official reports now coming in, finds that the G. A. R. reports do not include more than half of the old soldiers.

How Boy Criminals Are Punished by Thrashing in England.

Boys who are found guilty of minor offenses in England are sentenced by the judges to a sound thrashing at the hands of the policeman. Here is a description of it taken from an English paper:

The birch is a very different instrument of torture from the cat. The former is made up of a number of long birch twigs, while the latter is really a whip with nine knotted small cord lashes. When the cat is administered, the prison doctor must be present, but when the birch is put on it is only necessary for the inspector or superintendent of police to witness it, although the parents or near relatives of a boy sentenced to be flogged may be present at the castigation. When a dose of the cat is dealt out, none but those connected with the prison are allowed to be there.

Like the cat the birch may be made a very severe punishment or a comparatively trivial affair, not merely according to the number of strokes, but from the instructions given the constable who is told off to do the flogging. I have seen a boy after six strokes resemble nothing so much as a piece of raw beef and bleeding fearfully, while I have also seen a boy after six strokes merely a trifle red.

Some policemen dread the duty of flogging, and after the first two strokes get a sharp order to "hit the boy and not play with him." Other constables delight in the work and boast of their ability to draw blood at the first stroke.

Various modes of administering the punishment obtain in different parts of the country. In some places boys are placed face downward on a form. One constable holds his arms and head firmly, while another does him the same service with his legs, and the third administers the punishment.

In other prisons the culprit is placed on a constable's back, and as he sits there with his arms around the officer's neck, awaiting "the event," his attitude strikes a spectator more as one of affection than discomfort. Another way is to compel a boy to lean over a chair as if he were praying, then run a strap right around his legs and the legs of the chair, a constable holding his head and arms from the other side.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Caution about the Use and Selection of Spectacles

"Persons having normal vision will be able to read this notice at a distance of 14 inches from the eye with ease and comfort. Also will be able to read it with each eye separately. If unable to do so, your eye is defective and should have immediate attention. When the eye becomes tired from reading or if the letters look blurred and run together, it is a sure indication that glasses are needed. The glasses sold in the cheap mode are of no value, and have imperfectly formed surfaces. Cheap use of these poor lenses will result in positive injury from the constant strain upon the muscles of accommodation to supply the defects in the glass."

RACING FOR THE MAIL

An Important Contest Between Ocean Steamships.

MILLIONS OF DOLLARS AT STAKE.

The New American Liner St. Louis Competing With the Majestic For Uncle Sam's Postal Contract—The Distance Covers 3,100 Sea Miles.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The American liner St. Louis has sped from the harbor on her race with the mails across the ocean. She left her pier in the North river four hours ahead of her rival, the White Star liner Majestic, but that fact will not in the least stifle the ambition of the craft to get their postal matter in London first.

The St. Louis is bound for Southampton, or 275 miles further than the destination of the Majestic, which is Queenstown. This means from 14 to 15 hours extra steaming for a levithian for the St. Louis' speed, but in landing the mails at Southampton the journey between that point and London is two hours only by mail.

The distance between Queenstown and London, by way Dublin, Kingstown and Holyhead, is 504 miles, which is accomplished in 13 hours and 40 minutes, including the sea passage of four hours and 45 minutes between Kingstown pier and Holyhead. So it can be seen what a close contest it is, all things considered.

What lends additional interest to the journey of the two ships is the fact that through the medium of the St. Louis, the American line inaugurates on this trip a postal contract with the United States government that will net the steamship company $644,800 per year, or $6,448,000 for the ten years in which the agreement will hold good. These figures are given on the basis of one trip to Europe each week by any of the four greyhounds, the St. Louis, St. Paul, Paris or New York.

Each trip will be made over a course averaging 3,100 sea miles from dock to dock, the rate of compensation being 14 per mile, or $12,400 per trip. This postal revenue to the company is exclusive of any that the British government may give for the home passages. Because of this subsidy and the big sums involved, the postal authorities of both continents will watch the inaugural trip with the greatest interest. Comparisons will be drawn between the performance of the St. Louis and the Majestic, which also carries United States mails, to observe whether the Yankee flyer will be able to get her consignment of postal racks in London before her British rival. The St. Louis has the advantage of having a postal clerk on board, a novelty that England has not yet adopted. This postal clerk, on the way over, will sort and distribute mail, so that when it reaches the southwestern railway station at Southampton it will all be practically ready for delivery. There being no postal vessel will be delivered at Queenstown in the same crude shape in which it was put aboard today, and the sorting process will have to be done on the other side.

CHINA REMAINS HOSTILE.

Proceedings at Ku-Cheng Conducted With Defiance to Justice and Order.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Advices by mail state that the feeling of hostility toward foreigners in China is rapidly increasing. Additional calamities are feared. The proceedings at Ku-cheng are conducted with a flagrant defiance of justice and order. The central government seems powerless to assert its authority, even if genuinely inclined to do so.

The American residents who appealed successfully to Washington for the appointment of a commission to investigate the Szechuan outrages are beginning to doubt the expediency of that measure. The Szechuan affair is almost forgotten since the occurrence of the deeper tragedy. It is felt what ever energy is to be shown by the United States government should be directed to a more useful purpose than the appointment of damages for missionary property destroyed. Immediate action of a much more decided nature is imperatively required. Questions of life and death are imminent, and it is thought peculiar considerations might be deferred.

Considered of Great Importance. LONDON, Oct. 17.—The officials of the Turkish embassy here attach much importance to an article which recently appeared in the revolutionary Armenian paper, Haik, published in New York, of which a cable translation was forwarded here. It is claimed that this article plainly indicates how great is the activity of the leaders of the revolutionary movement in Armenia.

Sale of Bogus Salmon Stopped.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The secretary of the fishermen's company confirms the report of the stoppage of the sale of Canadian salmon, a large quantity of which arrived here on Oct. 10. He says he has no doubt from the sample seen by the company's experts that it is what is called "bull trout," and it is assumed that the rest of the consignment is the same.

TURKEY HAS YIELDED.

Administrative Reforms Demanded Will Be Granted.

ARMENIA TO BE FAIRLY TREATED.

The Scheme of the Powers Accepted by Said Pasha, and Now Admits the Sultan's Approval—Christians to Have Official Representation.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 17.—Said Pasha has accepted the scheme for reform in Armenia drawn up by Great Britain, France and Russia, and it now awaits the signature of the sultan. The scheme is almost identical with the proposals of last May, which in substance were that the governors and vice governors of Van, Erzeroum, Sivas, Bitlis, Khartut and Trebizond be Christian or Mussulman, according to the inclination of the population, and the appointments are to be confirmed by the powers. Local and not state officials are to collect the taxes, and enough money is to be retained before it is forwarded to Constantinople to pay the expenses of local administration. Complete changes will be made in the judicial system, torture will be abolished, the prisons will be under surveillance, the police will be composed of Christians and Turks, equally, and the laws against compulsory conversions to Islamism will be strictly enforced.

The ambassadors of the powers expect that the whole question will be finally settled during the course of the week by the promulgation of an imperial decree. Contrary to general expectation, the high commissioner who will be charged with the execution of this scheme of reform will be a Christian. This was the hardest pill for the porte to swallow, and for a long time it threatened to bring about the most serious complications.

Japan Forced to Comply.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Advices by mail from Tokio, Japan, state that Japan has been forced to comply with Russia's demand for a speedy withdrawal of the Japanese troops from Liao Tung. France and Germany joined in the demand and the Japanese government was in no position to defy three European powers. This proceeding has caused renewed bitterness in Japan against Europeans. The Japanese also charge their own minister with conniving at the nation's dishonor.

Union Veteran Legion Convened.

BUFFALO, Oct. 17.—The tenth annual encampment of the Union Veteran Legion convention met in Music hall, about 700 strong. Mayor Jewett welcomed the veterans to Buffalo, and a response was given on behalf of the legion by Commander Tanner. A parade took place, in which fully 30,000 men took part. The troops from Fort Porter, the Seventy-fourth regiment, national guard, and the city troops acted as escort to the column.

The order of council for the improvement of pavements has been very generally observed, and winter will find the city prepared better than ever. With Calcutta road improved and Avondale street no longer a bughar there will still be cause for complaint, as there are other parts of town in need. East End people smile because of the new pavements in that part of town, and are praying that the weather clerk keeps back the winter, for they fear the walks will not be completed before the first of December.

RACING FOR THE MAIL

An Important Contest Between Ocean Steamships.

MILLIONS OF DOLLARS AT STAKE.

The New American Liner St. Louis Competing With the Majestic For Uncle Sam's Postal Contract—The Distance Covers 3,100 Sea Miles.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The American liner St. Louis has sped from the harbor on her race with the mails across the ocean. She left her pier in the North river four hours ahead of her rival, the White Star liner Majestic, but that fact will not in the least stifle the ambition of the craft to get their postal mail in London first.

The St. Louis is bound for Southampton, or 275 miles further than the destination of the Majestic, which is Queenstown. This means from 14 to 15 hours extra steaming for a levithian for the St. Louis' speed, but in landing the mails at Southampton the journey between that point and London is two hours only by mail.

The distance between Queenstown and London, by way Dublin, Kingstown and Holyhead, is 504 miles, which is accomplished in 13 hours and 40 minutes, including the sea passage of four hours and 45 minutes between Kingstown pier and Holyhead. So it can be seen what a close contest it is, all things considered.

What lends additional interest to the journey of the two ships is the fact that through the medium of the St. Louis, the American line inaugurates on this trip a postal contract with the United States government that will net the steamship company $644,800 per year, or $6,448,000 for the ten years in which the agreement will hold good. These figures are given on the basis of one trip to Europe each week by any of the four greyhounds, the St. Louis, St. Paul, Paris or New York.

Each trip will be made over a course averaging 3,100 sea miles from dock to dock, the rate of compensation being 14 per mile, or $12,400 per trip. This postal revenue to the company is exclusive of any that the British government may give for the home passages.

Because of this subsidy and the big sums involved, the postal authorities of both continents will watch the inaugural trip with the greatest interest. Comparisons will be drawn between the performance of the St. Louis and the Majestic, which also carries United States mails, to observe whether the Yankee flyer will be able to get her consignment of postal racks in London before her British rival. The St. Louis has the advantage of having a postal clerk on board, a novelty that England has not yet adopted. This postal clerk, on the way over, will sort and distribute mail, so that when it reaches the southwestern railway station at Southampton it will all be practically ready for delivery. There being no postal vessel will be delivered at Queenstown in the same crude shape in which it was put aboard today, and the sorting process will have to be done on the other side.

CHINA REMAINS HOSTILE.

Proceedings at Ku-Cheng Conducted With Defiance to Justice and Order.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Advices by mail state that the feeling of hostility toward foreigners in China is rapidly increasing. Additional calamities are feared. The proceedings at Ku-cheng are conducted with a flagrant defiance of justice and order. The central government seems powerless to assert its authority, even if genuinely inclined to do so.

The American residents who appealed successfully to Washington for the appointment of a commission to investigate the Szechuan outrages are beginning to doubt the expediency of that measure. The Szechuan affair is almost forgotten since the occurrence of the deeper tragedy. It is felt that ever energy is to be shown by the United States government should be directed to a more useful purpose than the apportionment of damages for missionary property destroyed. Immediate action of a much more decided nature is imperatively required. Questions of life and death are imminent, and it is thought pecuniary considerations might be deferred.

Considered of Great Importance.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The officials of the Turkish embassy here attach much importance to an article which recently appeared in the revolutionary Armenian paper, Haik, published in New York, of which a cable translation was forwarded here. It is claimed that this article plainly indicates how great is the activity of the leaders of the revolutionary movement in America.

Sale of Bogus Salmon Stopped.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The secretary of the fishers' company confirms the report of the stoppage of the sale of Canadian salmon, a large quantity of which arrived here on Oct. 10. He says he has no doubt from the sample seen by the company's experts that it is what is called "bull trout," and it is assumed that the rest of the consignment is the same.

TURKEY HAS YIELDED.

Administrative Reforms Demanded Will Be Granted.

ARMENIA TO BE FAIRLY TREATED.

The Scheme of the Powers Accepted by Said Pasha, and Now Admits the Sultan's Approval—Christians to Have Official Representation.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 17.—Said Pasha has accepted the scheme for reform in Armenia drawn up by Great Britain, France and Russia, and it now awaits the signature of the sultan. The scheme is almost identical with the proposals of last May, which in substance were that the governors and vice governors of Van, Erzeroum, Sivas, Bitlis, Khartut and Trebizond be Christian or Mussulman, according to the inclination of the population, and the appointments are to be confirmed by the powers. Local and not state officials are to collect the taxes, and enough money is to be retained before it is forwarded to Constantinople to pay the expenses of local administration. Complete changes will be made in the judicial system, torture will be abolished, the prisons will be under surveillance, the police will be composed of Christians and Turks, equally, and the laws against compulsory conversions to Islamism will be strictly enforced.

The ambassadors of the powers expect that the whole question will be finally settled during the course of the week by the promulgation of an imperial decree. Contrary to general expectation, the high commissioner who will be charged with the execution of this scheme of reform will be a Christian. This was the hardest pill for the porte to swallow, and for a long time it threatened to bring about the most serious complications.

Japan Forced to Comply.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Advices by mail from Tokio, Japan, state that Japan has been forced to comply with Russia's demand for a speedy withdrawal of the Japanese troops from Liao Tung, France and Germany joined in the demand and the Japanese government was in no position to defy three European powers. This proceeding has caused renewed bitterness in Japan against Europeans. The Japanese also charge their own minister with conniving at the nation's dishonor.

Union Veteran Legion Convention.

BUFFALO, Oct. 17.—The tenth annual encampment of the Union Veteran Legion convention met in Music hall, about 700 strong. Mayor Jewett welcomed the veterans to Buffalo, and a response was given on behalf of the legion by Commander Tanner. A parade took place, in which fully 50,000 men took part. The troops from Fort Porter, the Seventy-fourth regiment, national guard, and the city troops acted as escort to the column.

He is an orator whose words are well weighed before uttered, and a gentleman who never allows his political zeal to overcome his early training. You will learn all about the campaign if you listen to Charles Emory Smith on Monday evening.

The order of council for the improvement of pavements has been very generally observed, and winter will find the city prepared better than ever. With Calcutta road improved and a vandale street no longer a bughar there will still be cause for complaint, as there are other parts of town in need. East End people smile because of the new pavements in that part of town, and are praying that the weather clerk keeps back the winter, for they fear the walks will not be completed before the first of December.

SOUTH IS SUFFERING

Danger From the Low Stage of Water In the River.

NAVIGATION IS AT AN END

No Boats Fly Between Cincinnati and Louisville, and a Dangerous Condition Exists—Only a Foot of Water Between Davis Island Dam and Wheeling.

The scarcity of water in the river has caused a suspension of navigation from Pittsburgh to Cairo, and alarming dispatches come east of the condition existing in the southern part of the state.

For the first time since 1879 is the water so low that boats cannot pass between Cincinnati and Louisville, and in many places along the river there is not enough water to float an empty barge. The river has been low in this section for many months, and no boats with the exception of the little Olivette, of Steubenville, have been seen on the river. Rain has been so well distributed that while some inconvenience has been felt in the surrounding country it is not at all dangerous. The hot, dry ground has been swallowing up the water as it fell, and little has found its way to the river. The stretch between the Davis Island dam and Wheeling contains no more than a foot of water, and an enormous amount of rain must fall before a navigable stage is reached. A dispatch from Cincinnati tells the story of the stream in that section. There has been no rain for weeks and all the tributaries of the Ohio are almost dry. Only 2 1/2 feet of water is in the channel at Cincinnati, and as the days go by it is growing less. Typhoid fever is everywhere, and funerals are of almost daily occurrence. Not a wheat field has been plowed, and the ground is dry and dusty. The river can not float a single boat. At every landing spot from Pomeroy, O., 450 miles to Louisville, lie all sorts of produce, rotting in the sun of day and the frosts of night. A competent river man said in this space named on the river, 2,000,000 bushels of apples, 500,000 cabbages, 250,000 bushels of potatoes, untold quantities of butter, eggs and other farm products are spoiled. All of the little stores are short of groceries, and the losses to the steamers, to the produce dealer, to the shipper and buyer, exceeds $1,000,000. The Ohio is so low that pools of stagnant water line its bed, and the green poison of filth hides the face of the liquid. It is a plague that section never knew. It is not an exaggeration, simply a hint of the existing distress.

George Hamilton, of Fifth street, returned last night from a visit in the central and western part of the state, and he says that the scarcity of water there is a feature that is causing no end of trouble. At one spring he saw 20 teams waiting to drink, and on more than one occasion he noticed where the railroads were hauling water. At many towns in the eastern part of the state typhoid fever is raging. Cadiz, in Harrison county, having 40 cases, and other places a few miles from the river being cursed with the plague.

"The Ohio river today reached the lowest point of the year, and the lowest ever known in the month of October, is what a special from Wheeling says. "There are less than 11 inches of water in the channel, and navigation is totally suspended, even the flat-bottomed ferry boats having to tie up. There has been no rain except a few slight showers for over three months. Pasture fields are entirely dried, and farmers are feeding stock.

Competent critics who witnessed the dress rehearsal of At the Picket Line last night pronounce it one of the best military productions ever seen in the city. Don't forget the dates, Oct. 18 and 19.

THE KINETOSCOPE.

Wonderful Pictures at the Rink on Friday and Saturday.

Professor Seigfried will be at the rink with his wonderful KINETOSCOPE on Friday and Saturday nights at the entertainment and flower show given by the Ladies auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian association. These pictures are just like life, figures and scenes flashing before you as upon our streets and highways. The fire rescue scene; the carnival dance; the bar room scene. Duncan Ross and an opponent are engaged in a combat on horseback, riders and horses dashing about as if in real life with swords flashing, crossing, guarding and thrusting. And all this for five cents. Don't miss the flower show, the Young Men's Christian association athletes, the brass band, the kinetoscope and the delicious ice cream and cake. Admission only 10 cents. *

The John Ruszits Fur company, of New York, will be at our store tomorrow and Saturday with a full line of furs of every description. Come and see them whether you want to buy or not.

EPWORTH LEAGUE ENTERTAINMENT.

East Liverpool Leaguers Will Entertain the Lisbonites.

The league of the First Methodist Episcopal church will give a reception and 6 o'clock dinner to the Lisbon League on Friday, October 25. An entertainment will be held at night in the upper auditorium. Mr. Walters, the famous blind organist, of Philadelphia, will render several selections. Misses Lide Andrews, of Wellsville, and Ida Moser, of Lisbon will give select readings. Professor Gotschall, of East Liverpool, and Miss Marie Wainwright, of Lisbon, will delight the audience with vocal solos. The price of admission to the entertainment has been placed at the light figure of 10 cents. Of course you will attend, and take your lady friends. *

LAI'D THE CORNERSTONE.

A Little Ceremony at the Standard Pottery.

The cornerstone of the new building at the Standard Pottery was laid yesterday afternoon without ceremony, the only spectators being George Phillips and Superintendent Ferguson. They did not want the event to pass without some unusual happening, and a $5 gold piece together with a number of other articles were placed under the stone. The gentlemen watched the operation of laying the stone with no little interest, and wondered much because the populace had not been informed of the great event.

RENTED A ROOM.

The McKinley Club Will Soon Have Pleasant Quarters.

The McKinley club have rented a room in the Thompson building, entrance being gained to it from Fifth street, but there will be no meeting tonight. Important business is to be transacted but the meeting has been postponed until tomorrow evening when the rooms will be temporarily furnished. The plan at present is to have the quarters fixed up nicely in the near future with chairs and tables, and make the rooms the permanent home of Republicanism in the city.

A Fine Rehearsal.

The last rehearsal of the company selected to play "At the Picket Line" for the Sons of Veterans, was held last evening at the opera house, and a splendid performance it was. Every member of the cast knew his part, and the manner in which the play was staged brought rounds of applause from the little knot of spectators. The first performance will be at the Grand tomorrow evening, and the audience is promised the best amateur play ever seen in the city.

John Hood Dead.

Edward Hood went to Toronto today to attend the funeral of his brother, John Hood, who died there yesterday after an illness extending over two weeks. Typhoid fever was the cause. Deceased was well known here, having a number of relatives in the city.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Frank Kerr is attending to business in Rochester today.

—George H. Owen is in Salineville today, attending to business affairs.

—T. C. Smith, traveler for Wallace & Chetwynd, returned from the west yesterday.

—Miss Celia Davis, of near East Palestine, called on friends in this city today.

—Mrs. James Ferran, of St. Clairsville, is visiting her son, Al W. Ferran, of Bradshaw avenue.

—W. B. Packer, who was in the drug business here, left yesterday to take charge of a drug store in Girard.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Captured a Horse.

The police this morning captured a stray horse and locked it up until its owner would call, claim it, and pay the damages. A vigorous movement in this direction would result in great benefit to people living on the hill, since many of them are greatly annoyed by cows and other live stock that are allowed to roam at their own sweet will, browsing on tin cans and brick bats.

Good health is a precious boon and those who enjoy it should preserve it at whatever cost. Libby's Phosphatic Beef, Iron and Wine is the great health preserving remedy, never failing tonic, strength and tissue producer and builder up of weak and debilitated women. Sold by first class druggists. Be sure you get Libby's. Don't be persuaded by any dealer to take something he will tell you is just as good—his object is to sell you some poor decoction upon which his profits are large. Go to some first class dealer or send $1 to Yarns, Libby, McNeill & Libby, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, or send to Alvin H. Bulger, leading druggist, East Liverpool, O.

An Exaggerated Story.

A story was on the streets today that W. H. Surles would lose his foot because of injuries received a few days ago. The foot is sore, and Mr. Surles was compelled to have it lanced yesterday, but there is no danger of amputation becoming necessary.

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptom of true croup is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

THE LAW OF 1890.

Widows' and Dependent Mothers' Pensions.

The law of June 27, 1890, provides a pension of $8 per month for the widow of every soldier, without regard to the time or cause of her husband's death, if she has not sufficient income to support her without her own labor. Under the provisions of this same law, dependent mothers are allowed a pension of $12 per month.

By fair and liberal rulings under Republican administration thousands of pensions were granted widows and dependent mothers. But now under the rulings of the Hoke Smith administration, if any widow has an income from all sources amounting to more than the pension, her claim is rejected "because she is not dependent under the meaning of the law."

A widow's pension under the law of June 27, 1890, amounted to $96 per year, and if she has an income of more than that amount a year, her claim is rejected. If a dependent mother has an income in excess of $144 per year her claim is rejected.

The pension department has also made a ruling that in estimating the income of a widow or dependent mother her daily labor shall be counted as part of her income.

But few dependent mothers of soldiers are under 80 years of age, and instead of earning any income they are dependent on others for their support, and the widows of soldiers are getting old and feeble, yet under the present administration, if they have an income from all sources, including their own labor, of $100 per year, they are denied a pension. Such rulings are a shame and an outrage, but they are only in keeping with the policy and practice of this administration to throw every possible impediment in the way of soldiers' widows and dependent mothers getting a pension.

Comrade of the Grand Army, when you have answered your last "roll call" on earth and have received the final "muster out" do you wish to leave the claims of your widows and children in the hands of such a party? If you do not, then vote the Republican ticket and turn this soldier hating party out of power.

Heavier Than Usual.

This seemed to be judgment day in the court of "Squire Rose today, two cases of more than ordinary importance being disposed of.

The case of Mayer & Koepff, of Cleveland, against Owen Cannon for merchandise, resulted in a judgment against Cannon for $66.18.

Samuel Grove had a suit against John Boyd in which he asked $210.05, the balance on a horse trade that took place some time ago. Boyd, who resides in Allegheny, now has the judgment for the amount recorded against him.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at T. L. Pott's Drug store.

SOUTH IS SUFFERING

Danger From the Low Stage of Water in the River.

NAVIGATION IS AT AN END

No Boats Fly Between Cincinnati and Louisville, and a Dangerous Condition Exists—Only a Foot of Water Between Davis Island Dam and Wheeling.

The scarcity of water in the river has caused a suspension of navigation from Pittsburgh to Cairo, and alarming dispatches come east of the condition existing in the southern part of the state.

For the first time since 1879 is the water so low that boats cannot pass between Cincinnati and Louisville, and in many places along the river there is not enough water to float an empty barge. The river has been low in this section for many months, and no boats with the exception of the little Olivette, of Steubenville, have been seen on the river. Rain has been so well distributed that while some inconvenience has been felt in the surrounding country it is not at all dangerous. The hot, dry ground has been swallowing up the water as it fell, and little has found its way to the river. The stretch between the Davis Island dam and Wheeling contains no more than a foot of water, and an enormous amount of rain must fall before a navigable stage is reached. A dispatch from Cincinnati tells the story of the stream in that section. There has been no rain for weeks and all the tributaries of the Ohio are almost dry. Only 2½ feet of water is in the channel at Cincinnati, and as the days go by it is growing less. Typhoid fever is everywhere, and funerals are of almost daily occurrence. Not a wheat field has been plowed, and the ground is dry and dusty. The river can not float a single boat. At every landing spot from Pomeroy, O., 450 miles to Louisville, lie all sorts of produce, rotting in the sun of day and the frosts of night. A competent river man said in this space named on the river, 2,000,000 bushels of apples, 500,000 cabbages, 250,000 bushels of potatoes, untold quantities of butter, eggs and other farm products are spoiled. All of the little stores are short of groceries, and the losses to the steamer, to the produce dealer, to the shipper and buyer, exceeds $1,000,000. The Ohio is so low that pools of stagnant water line its bed, and the green poison of filth hides the face of the liquid. It is a plague that section never knew. It is not an exaggeration, simply a hint of the existing distress.

George Hamilton, of Fifth street, returned last night from a visit in the central and western part of the state, and he says that the scarcity of water there is a feature that is causing no end of trouble. At one spring he saw 20 teams waiting to drink, and on more than one occasion he noticed where the railroads were hauling water. At many towns in the eastern part of the state typhoid fever is raging. Cadiz, in Harrison county, having 40 cases, and other places a few miles from the river being cursed with the plague.

"The Ohio river today reached the lowest point of the year, and the lowest ever known in the month of October, is what a special from Wheeling says. "There are less than 11 inches of water in the channel, and navigation is totally suspended, even the flat-bottomed ferry boats having to tie up. There has been no rain except a few slight showers for over three months. Pasture fields are entirely dried, and farmers are feeding stock.

Competent critics who witnessed the dress rehearsal of At the Picket Line last night pronounce it one of the best military productions ever seen in the city. Don't forget the dates, Oct. 18 and 19.

THE KINETOSCOPE.

Wonderful Pictures at the Rink on Friday and Saturday.

Professor Seigfried will be at the rink with his wonderful KINETOSCOPE on Friday and Saturday nights at the entertainment and flower show given by the Ladies auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian association. These pictures are just like life, figures and scenes flashing before you as upon our streets and highways. The fire rescue scene; the carnival dance; the bar room scene. Duncan Ross and an opponent are engaged in a combat on horseback, riders and horses dashing about as if in real life with swords flashing, crossing, guarding and thrusting. And all this for five cents. Don't miss the flower show, the Young Men's Christian association athletes, the brass band, the kinetoscope and the delicious ice cream and cake. Admission only 10 cents. *

The John Ruszits Fur company, of New York, will be at our store tomorrow and Saturday with a full line of furs of every description. Come and see them whether you want to buy or not.

EPWORTH LEAGUE ENTERTAINMENT.

East Liverpool Leaguers Will Entertain the Lisbonites.

The league of the First Methodist Episcopal church will give a reception and 6 o'clock dinner to the Lisbon League on Friday, October 25. An entertainment will be held at night in the upper auditorium. Mr. Walters, the famous blind organist, of Philadelphia, will render several selections. Misses Lide Andrews, of Wellsville, and Ida Moser, of Lisbon will give select readings. Professor Gotschall, of East Liverpool, and Miss Marie Wainwright, of Lisbon, will delight the audience with vocal solos. The price of admission to the entertainment has been placed at the light figure of 10 cents. Of course you will attend, and take your lady friends. *

LAI D THE CORNERSTONE.

A Little Ceremony at the Standard Pottery.

The cornerstone of the new building at the Standard Pottery was laid yesterday afternoon without ceremony, the only spectators being George Phillips and Superintendent Ferguson. They did not want the event to pass without some unusual happening, and a $5 gold piece together with a number of other articles were placed under the stone. The gentlemen watched the operation of laying the stone with no little interest, and wondered much because the populace had not been informed of the great event.

RENTED A ROOM.

The McKinley Club Will Soon Have Pleasant Quarters.

The McKinley club have rented a room in the Thompson building, entrance being gained to it from Fifth street, but there will be no meeting tonight. Important business is to be transacted but the meeting has been postponed until tomorrow evening when the rooms will be temporarily furnished. The plan at present is to have the quarters fixed up nicely in the near future with chairs and tables, and make the rooms the permanent home of Republicanism in the city.

A Fine Rehearsal.

The last rehearsal of the company selected to play "At the Picket Line" for the Sons of Veterans, was held last evening at the opera house, and a splendid performance it was. Every member of the cast knew his part, and the manner in which the play was staged brought rounds of applause from the little knot of spectators. The first performance will be at the Grand tomorrow evening, and the audience is promised the best amateur play ever seen in the city.

John Hood Dead.

Edward Hood went to Toronto today to attend the funeral of his brother, John Hood, who died there yesterday after an illness extending over two weeks. Typhoid fever was the cause. Deceased was well known here, having a number of relatives in the city.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only 50 cents at Potts' drug store.

A Bunch of Keys.

Hoyt's "Bunch of Keys" will be at the Grand tonight, played by a good company. The play is well known, and when presented by such a company as will be here tonight is a performance worthy the patronage of the best theater goers.

Don't say that you can not find what you want in fur garments in town but come to the display tomorrow and Saturday and you will find just what you want.

The Cresser-Ogilvie Co.

Postponed the Case.

Trial of the suit of the Christian Metch against W. E. Cooper was postponed in the court of Squire Morley today until next Monday. An effort is being made to settle the litigation out of court. It involves the value of a car of hay.

Tomorrow, Friday and next day, Saturday, are the days of the fur and cloak display at our store. Be sure and come.

The Cresser-Ogilvie Co.

and a careful microscopic examination of the urine, is a valuable aid in determining the nature of many chronic diseases, particularly those of the nervous system, blood, liver, kidneys, and bladder. These aids make it possible to treat such diseases successfully at a distance, without personal examination of the patient. Thus Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Bladder, Gravel, and other Diseases of the Urinary Organs, "Liver Complaint," Dyspepsia, or indigestion, Dropsy and many other maladies are successfully treated and cured without personal consultation with the physician.

Nervous Debility, whether resulting from over study, worry, disappointment, or from exhausting drains upon the system caused by precocious secret habits contracted in youth, through ignorance of their ruinous consequences, is successfully managed, through correspondence, the necessary medicines being sent by mail or express. Write for question blanks, or describe your case, send sample of urine for analysis and enclose 10 cents for postage on treatise, which contains reproduced photographs and full names and addresses of vast numbers of people who have been cured in this way. PERSONAL MENTION.

—Frank Kerr is attending to business in Rochester today.

—George H. Owen is in Salineville today, attending to business affairs.

—T. C. Smith, traveler for Wallace & Chetwynd, returned from the west yesterday.

—Miss Celia Davis, of near East Palestine, called on friends in this city today.

—Mrs. James Ferran, of St. Clairsville, is visiting her son, Al W. Ferran, of Bradshaw avenue.

—W. B. Packer, who was in the drug business here, left yesterday to take charge of a drug store in Girard.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Captured a Horse.

The police this morning captured a stray horse and locked it up until its owner would call, claim it, and pay the damages. A vigorous movement in this direction would result in great benefit to people living on the hill, since many of them are greatly annoyed by cows and other live stock that are allowed to roam at their own sweet will, browsing on tin cans and brick bats.

Good health is a precious boon and those who enjoy it should preserve it at whatever cost. Libby's Phosphatic Beef, Iron and Wine is the great health preserving remedy, never failing tonic, strength and tissue producer and builder up of weak and debilitated women. Sold by first class druggists. Be sure you get Libby's. Don't be persuaded by any dealer to take something he will tell you is just as good—his object is to sell you some poor decoction upon which his profits are large. Go to some first class dealer or send $1 to us, Libby, McNeill & Libby, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, or send to Alvin H. Bulger, leading druggist, East Liverpool, O.

An Exaggerated Story.

A story was on the streets today that W. H. Surles would lose his foot because of injuries received a few days ago. The foot is sore, and Mr. Surles was compelled to have it lanced yesterday, but there is no danger of amputation becoming necessary.

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptom of true croup is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the attack. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

THE LAW OF 1890.

Widows' and Dependent Mothers' Pensions.

The law of June 27, 1890, provides a pension of $8 per month for the widow of every soldier, without regard to the time or cause of her husband's death, if she has not sufficient income to support her without her own labor. Under the provisions of this same law, dependent mothers are allowed a pension of $12 per month.

By fair and liberal rulings under Republican administration thousands of pensions were granted widows and dependent mothers. But now under the rulings of the Hoke Smith administration, if any widow has an income from all sources amounting to more than the pension, her claim is rejected "because she is not dependent under the meaning of the law."

A widow's pension under the law of June 27, 1890, amounted to $96 per year, and if she has an income of more than that amount a year, her claim is rejected. If a dependent mother has an income in excess of $144 per year her claim is rejected.

The pension department has also made a ruling that in estimating the income of a widow or dependent mother her daily labor shall be counted as part of her income.

But few dependent mothers of soldiers are under 80 years of age, and instead of earning any income they are dependent on others for their support, and the widows of soldiers are getting old and feeble, yet under the present administration, if they have an income from all sources, including their own labor, of $100 per year, they are denied a pension. Such rulings are a shame and an outrage, but they are only in keeping with the policy and practice of this administration to throw every possible impediment in the way of soldiers' widows and dependent mothers getting a pension.

Comrade of the Grand Army, when you have answered your last "roll call" on earth and have received the final "muster out" do you wish to leave the claims of your widows and children in the hands of such a party? If you do not, then vote the Republican ticket and turn this soldier hating party out of power.

Heavier Than Usual.

This seemed to be judgment day in the court of Squire Rose today, two cases of more than ordinary importance being disposed of.

The case of Mayer & Koepff, of Cleveland, against Owen Cannon for merchandise, resulted in a judgment against Cannon for $66.18.

Samuel Grove had a suit against John Boyd in which he asked $210.05, the balance on a horse trade that took place some time ago. Boyd, who resides in Allegheny, now has the judgment for the amount recorded against him.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Callouette, druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at T. L. Pott's Drug store.

Clerk's Union.

Clerk's union No. 133 will hold a special meeting in Ferguson & Hill hall on Thursday evening, October 17. A full attendance is urged, as it is important that every member shall present. By order

J. E. ANDERSON, President.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Hattie Mason, of Chilton, Carter Co., Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.
